SLED's new 2015

Intensive South African Sign Language workshops:

The three day FULL TIME workshop will give participants an INTENSIVE experience of South African Sign Language and Deaf culture. The course is suitable for people who are new to SASL, parents and family members of Deaf children, those who are in contact with Deaf clients in their work place, and those wanting to explore South African Sign Language as part of a possible future career.

This is NOT an accredited course. This year we are aiming to give an opportunity to people with different time options and financial means, who find themselves unable to attend our normal weekly accredited NQF4 and NQF5 courses.

The cost of the three day intensive training is R 1750.00. The price includes VAT, as well as a learner manual and a DVD. It does NOT include transport, accommodation, meals and snacks. There are no bursaries available. Places are limited, since the intensive nature of the workshop will not allow for a large class. It will NOT be possible to attend for only some of the time.
